

REGISTRATION FOR OCTOBER 8, 2010 WORKSHOPS

REGISTRATION BEGINS JUNE 15, 2010

Registration deadline: September 15, 2010

Two workshops will be conducted by Naohiro Kasuya, Headmaster Designate of the Ichiyo School, on Friday, October 8. The cost will be $30 per session for I. I. members and $40 per session for non-I. I. members. Priority will be given to members of I. I. Both workshops will be held at

The Church of the Redeemer
145 W. Springfield Road
Springfield, PA 19064

10 AM to NOON — WORKSHOP #1: Arrangements in containers made of fresh bamboo

Following a brief review of techniques of working with fresh bamboo, you will have the opportunity to finish (drill holes, make additional openings) your own precut fresh bamboo container and create an arrangement in it. Bamboo container and materials will be provided.

1 PM to 3 PM — WORKSHOP #2: Choice of “Crossing Form” or “Group Contrast Form”

The Crossing Form uses material with a curving line or branches that can be bent or shaped to create curves flowing in different directions that cross to create vitality in linear beauty. The Group Contrast Form shows how three different materials (straight, curved, and massed) that have different characteristics and shapes, can still harmonize beautifully in a composition. The Crossing Form has individual delicate linear beauty, whereas the Group Contrast Form has consolidated contrast harmony.

PLEASE BRING: Scissors, a round or square flat container at least 9 inches in diameter and 2” deep or equivalent rectangular container, and a kenzan. Materials will be provided.

NOTE: If you are staying for both sessions, please bring lunch.
